Živorad Vasić je srednju školu i fakultet završio u Bostonu (SAD).

Na Bostonskom Univerzitetu stekao je dve diplome: diplomu hotel menadžera i diplomu iz finansija. Za vreme studija živeo je u Bostonu, ali je potom radio u osam američkih gradova i 11 hotela. Godine 2005. u Denveru (Kolorado) učestvovao je u otvaranju jednog od najvećih hotela. Profesionalno iskustvo sticao je postepeno, od CMT programa, višemesečnom obukom u različitim sektorima hotelijerstva, radeći kao noćni menadžer na recepciji, direktor domaćinstva, zamenik direktora soba, direktor soba. Kada se posle 17 godina boravka u SAD vratio u Srbiju i došao u Continental Hotel Beograd, želeo je da principe poslovanja koje je tamo naučio prenese na zaposlene u hotelu. Smatra da direktor hotela ima trostruku obavezu: prema vlasniku, gostima i zaposlenima. Kada se sve to uskladi i dobro funkcioniše, onda su rezultati svakako vidljivi. Bio je na čelu tima koji je vodio rekonstrukciju Continental hotela i otvaranje novog hotela Crowne Plaza Beograd koji kao brend pripada najvećoj svetskoj hoteljskoj grupaciji InterContinental Hotels Group. Darko Budeč ima internacionalno obrazovanje i diplomu Elektrotehničkog fakulteta u Beogradu.

U 25. godini prvi posao ga vodi u Irak, gde prvo radi kao rukovodilac kapitalnog projekta u Bagdadu, da bi sa 27 godina bio najmlađi branch manager u tadašnjoj Jugoslaviji. Po izbijanju rata u Iraku i povratku u Beograd, radi u nekoliko firmi kao menadžer, uglavnom u sektoru usluga i trgovine.

1992. osniva sopstvenu firmu BUCK i već tada započinje saradnju sa industrijskim dizajnerima i razvoj novih i inovativnih proizvoda. Takva strategija se dobro pokazala tokom krize 2008, i kasnije, kada je BUCK dobio prvu internacionalnu nagradu za industrijski dizajn, i postao prva srpska firma sa takvim uspehom. Od tada, BUCK je osvojio desetine nacionalnih i internacionalnih nagrada za dizajn, dok je sam Budeč prvi nacionalni laureat Ernst&Young nagrade Preduzetnik godine 2012.

Darko Budec has international education and the degree in engineering acquired in Faculty of Electric engineering in Belgrade.

At the age of 25 his first job took him to Iraq, where he was firstly employed as manager of a capital investment project in Baghdad, after which (at the age of 27) he became the youngest branch manager in the former Yugoslavia. Due to the war in Iraq, he returned to Bel-

Ever since, BUCK has won dozens of national and international awards for design, while Mr. Budec was the first national winner of Ernst& Young Entrepreneur of the year 2012 competition.
